APPALACHIAN MOUNTAIN CLUB,
1050 TREMONT BUILDING,
BOSTON, MASS.

April 20, 1898.

Dear Sir:

It gives me pleasure to convey to you the information that at the last meeting of the Appalachian Mountain Club you were elected to Corresponding membership in the Club, formal note of which is enclosed. For a number of years your papers and volumes, some of them at least, have been in our library, the Glacier which bears your name is the most imposing of our photographic treasures, so that we have not been unfamiliar with your work, and you have been with us in spirit. It is as an old friend, therefore, that I welcome to actual fraternity with our Club members—

Cordially yours

John Ritchie Jr.
Corresponding Secretary.
